ORDER :

In the reference 2nd cited, explanation of Smt.B.Mallamma, D.E.O., Hyd., has been called for, for her failure to supervise over all staff under her control and authority and allowed them to keep the cheques received from the PAO,Hyd., without disbursement for more than 17 days with an ulterior motive; and for violation of GOMs.No.200 GAD, dt.26.3.2007 and not maintained the personal cash declaration register in her office and attempted to mislead the ACB by giving a wrong representation with respect to the unaccounted cash of Rs.5,987/- found with Sri K.Murali, Jr.Asst., o/o DEO,Hyd.

2 . In her explanation 3rd cited, Smt.B.Mallamma has stated that the DEO sanctions and releases Budget to the GIA schools as per the Budget provisions and the Asst.Director (Drawing & Disbursing Officer) will prepare the bills supervise the handing over of the cheques to the concerned etc., certain cheques could not be handed over to due non-identification of related schools and after identification, cheques were handed over subsequently. Though the DEO supervises overall staff under DEO's control and authority, she was discharging dues as Camp Officer for spot valuation camp from 8.4.2007 to 23.4.2007 during that period. She is not aware of the GOMs.No.200 GAD, dt.26.3.2007 etc., and therefore, the Personal Cash Declaration Register had not been maintained in her office. However, after the visit of ACB, the said register has been maintained. She has stated that neither attempted nor mislead the Bureau by giving a wrong representation with respect to the unaccounted cash of Rs.5,987/- found with Sri K.Murali, Jr.Asst., as during the surprise visit by ACB on 17.4.2007, she was not in the o/o DEO, and she was discharging duties as Camp Officer at SSC spot valuation camp at Mehdiapatnam ; and further as per the explanation given by Sri K.Murali, it was observed that he was having an amount of Rs.16,160/- and out of which Rs.710/- was his personal amount and the remaining amounts were pertaining to the salaries of staff.

3 . After careful examination of the matter, Government have observed that the explanation is not convincing and ignorance of G.O. is no excuse and therefore decided to impose the minor punishment of “Censure” on her ; and accordingly “Censure” is hereby imposed on Smt.B.Mallamma,former DEO,Hyd. (presently J.D., o/o DSE,Hyd.).
